Which Outside Bodies to you sit on?

What is your understanding of why the Council is represented on this outside body?

- The Council does not give financial support to the Charity but the Charity Deed specifies that one local Borough Councillor is a Trustee
- As Key Trust - a requirement in the Trust Deed
- you are there to look after and make sure all is running well
- It is my understanding that the Council represent this outside body to give local government support
- As public money is available in grants part of my role is to see that it is allocated appropriately. Also to represent the Council.

What is your understanding of why the Council is represented on this outside body?

To provide a link between ESBC who own the building and the volunteer committee who manage the centre ensuring that the interests ESBC and the community are protected

We pay into the LEP so qualify for a plac on the Scrutiny Committee to ensure public money is used appropriately to benefit the population

WE ARE MEMBERS OF THE GSLEP AND HAVE REPRESENTATION ON SEVERAL OF ITS COMMITTEES

The sports council distributes grants on behalf of ESBC to local sporting organisations

The council owns the building and is managed by volunteers so local councillors help to maintain the link between them

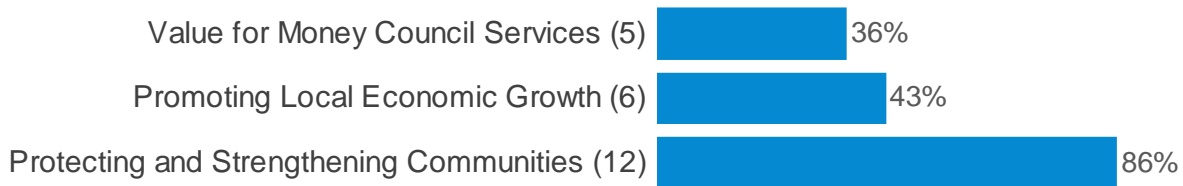

To be able to help & assist in the governance and advise if applicable. Being part of decision making in the Borough

Seems pretty pointless to me.

To keep up to date and also to be able to support and advise the charity on relevant issues relating to the Council

It is important for Councillors to see what is going on with this organisation. Although there are numerous Councillors nominated to this outside body I feel that the number is sufficient, as the areas inside and outside of Burton upon Trent (i.e. Tutbury/Tatenhill/Rolleston Barton etc) benefit from the charity

In your opinion, does the organisation support the Council in its delivery of its corporate priorities? If so, which one? (Please tick all that apply)

Please explain your answer

We support local community projects in Barton and Dunstall

Supports local communities

yes in all its activities

In my opinion the organisation supports two of the corporate priorities; Promoting Local Economic Growth in terms of bringing people into the Borough especially during their largest events and also Protecting and Strengthening Communities in terms of strengthening the job market employing local residents and encouraging the community to prosper with the increased footfall in the town of Uttoxeter

To help promote health and to see that the public receive value for money on grants available.

Providing a facility that benefits all the community helping to bring people together

As part of the LEP, we contribute, so we are able to bid (and have been successful) for monies to promote economic growth in East Staffordshire. We also utilise resources to encourage business start ups and growth to increase employment. It is right to be able to scrutinize the decisions taken to ensure they are in the interest of East Staffs and the West Midlands in general

WE HAVE BENEFITTED FROM BUSINESS RATES UNDER THE SCHEME AND ALSO A NUMBER OF GRANTS TO HELP DEVELOPMENT IN THE BOROUGH

Please explain your answer

It delivers grants at no extra cost to the council. Local sports organisations purchase products from local businesses to help them improve. Providing local sports facilities helps to improve local communities a successful centre provides a community hub which benefits local residents

Provides monies for worthy causes, provides alms house accommodation for residents in the area

Try to help community but community seem apathetic and don't support the Centre

Rolleston Almshouses is an important part of the community the charity gives out grants/bursaries to organisations/charities/voluntary groups/individuals for the relief of need and ensure that applications approved are for the public benefit and will benefit the areas as defined in its Constitution.

Are you given adequate notice of meetings and provided with agendas and papers beforehand?

Are you provided minutes of the meeting?

In your opinion, based on the organisations you represent, should the Council continue to have representation on this outside body?

No - but one nominated trustee needs to be a Neewdood Ward Borough Councillor (as stated in the Trust Deed)

Not essential (see Key Trust response)

yes

Yes

Yes

yes

Absolutely, it is vital to have representation on the LEP scrutiny committee

YES

No

Yes

yes

Please explain your answer

It's not a direct benefit to the council

No support from ESBC for this local Charity

it is a council buliding

A Council presence on this outside body helps in partnership working

It shows that the Council care and want to get involved in the community.

Because councillor prescence on management committe helps to maintain a smooth relationship between landlord and comittee volunteers which goes towards providing a needed facility

Not only do we scrutinise the LEP, we are actively developing good governance and ensuring the system works properly. We have a 3 year programme to scrutinise decisions of the LEP Supervisory Board and keep up to date with the main delivery programmes. This also helps me identify potential opportunities for East Staffs

COUNCIL HAS BENEFITTED FINANCIALLY AND SHOULD CONTINUE TO DO SO, PARTICULARLY AS THIS LEP IS ONE OF THE BETTER FUNDED ONES. HOWEVER THE CURRENT LEP REVIEW MAY MEAN THAT WE WILL NO LONGER BE ABLE TO BE A MEMBER AND MAY HAVE TO LOOK AT OTHER AREAS

The sports council distributes ESBC's money so we should have a say in how it is done

Helps both council,local councillors and management committee to ensure the ongoing provision of the centre which benefits the local and wider community

Fits in with corporate plan values, co-operation with voluntary communities, help create a better living environment for population.

Communication is by LETTER as no pc.Poor minutes that say virtually nothing and a waste of time. Making no money.

see Q3 response. It is particullary important for the ward member to be respresented on this outside body.

it is important for Councillors to be aware of the role and contribution to the communities made by this organisation to Burton and its surrounding area.
