Hi Nicola,

This is obviously good news that negotiations are in place regarding their licence but the one particular point that's concerning to me is that you state 'minor variation' to their licence? I'd have been expecting negotiations for major variations to effectively change their conditions on the licence. However, I will await the outcome in due course.

Dear [REDACTED]

I have come back on duty today, to keep you updated, I am currently in negotiations with the solicitor for the premises with them to submit a minor variation to effectively change their conditions on the licence which will dictate how they operate in a more positive manner.

I have copied in the officer from Environmental Health who, I'm sure will liaise with you direct in relation to the noise issues as that side of things is dealt with by them.

The local PCSO, Julia Wells will, I'm sure be liaising direct with you and the local policing Sgt to resolve any anti-social issues.

There is an option for local residents to submit a review application to put the venue forward before the licensing committee, this is where local councillors will listen to your concerns/issues and make a decision going forward, to do this please speak to East Staffordshire Borough Council on 01283 508310, where Helen Farman-McKenna will direct you to the correct forms to complete and submit.

Kind Regards

Subject: Fwd: Disturbance yet again at the New Inn. Tutbury.

Hi Nicola,

Feeling constantly unwell, due to my recent brain haemorrhage, and my wife was with her critically ill mother, I decided to retire early on Friday the 29th of June. For once, it appeared to be all calm in the vicinity, apart from a live band at the Vine. Tutbury, which in all fairness ended around 12.20. I applied my sleep apnea machine and attempted to settle, however, minutes later, the usual fracas at the New Inn began, and continued well up until 1.30 with the relentless noise, drinking, and ridiculous behaviour and dreadfully foul language. I was assured by yourselves that after 10pm no glasses or alcohol were allowed outside. In a vain attempt to cut down on this ongoing terrible noise issue, I closed all the household windows, but still was unable to get rest I then called 111 yet again. Due to no air in my bedroom, my blood pressure had excedled to 175/95 and without question was undoubtedly down to the same recurring problems we have continually have with the New Inn and I know without question I am not the only resident Thankfully around 1:40am the revellers appeared to have departed, but I was feeling ill, dizzy, alone and very nauseous and then proceeded to vomit, due to high blood pressure levels. I almost dialled 999, as I have been instructed to, if my blood pressure exceeds 170/95. This simply cannot go on any longer, in fact, I blame the New Inn entirely for my current medical condition, which weekly allows me no rest whatsoever, no fresh air, and I am still signed off sick from my workplace since the 25th January 2018. The chances of a full recovery are nigh on impossible with the continually emotional and physical distress this has caused to me and many other Tutbury residents. I am seriously contemplating sueing the New Inn for the relentless disturbance, noise, mess and also impeding my serious medical recovery, the local Police for their lack of due care and attention and several other corporations that I have dealt with over many years to get a suitable resolve to this ongoing problem. It is simply unacceptable on every single level, and it is essential that I remain calm at all times and free from all anxiety to ensure a hopeful recovery. Rest is essential for someone with my recent medical diagnosis, and in a small village like Tutbury the Licensing laws are utterly ludicrous. The Dog and Partridge Hotel and restaurant observe the closing times, and that is just for the care and compassion to their hotel guests. Why should any other Public house in Tutbury get away with a last order service at 1am, where the revellers stock up on alcohol to enable them to continue well past 2am in the morning? If these people insist on drinking themselves into oblivion, then surely hopping onto a bus and heading into Burton Upon Trent would be the obvious solution, where they can merrily continue until their hearts are content until 4am in the morning, without causing constant distress, anxiety and illness to others.

I would appreciate somebody to liaise immediately with me regarding this continuing issue, as tonight I understand they have a live band on, and due to this I am having to stay with my Sister in Law in Barton Under Needwood to ensure I at least get one good nights rest. Having to leave your domaine, due to the selfish acts of others is in itself proposterous. I wonder how you would feel and react if it was you?

I await your correspondance.

Hi Nicola,

What was the outcome of the meeting?

I'm a little concerned that I've learnt that a very loud band is apparently booked for a Saturday night in a few weekends time?

Hi Nicola,

I am sitting in my lounge on a Tuesday evening having to listen to people's loud conversations with drinking still going on, and it's now 10:38pm.

I don't know about tonight [REDACTED] as I'm not at home, but last night was absolutely horrendous once again. Hell of a racket going on until 1:30 in the morning, and still drinking outside until this time. In the end I had to call 999 because 101 were not able to respond for 40 minutes. There was even a crowd directly outside my window arguing, loud raucous behaviour. I'm going to end up in hospital again if nothing is done soon. This cannot be acceptable in this day and age for me as a 64 year old man, having recently suffered a brain haemorrhage, which I am certain this place has been the major cause of. Can Nicola or Julia please inform me what I have to do before I end up in hospital again?

ONGOING ISSUE

MY WIFE IS CONSTANTLY THE TARGET OF INAPPROPRIATE COMMENTS FROM THE MEN DRINKING AT THE BACK OF THE NEW INN.

WHEN LEAVING OR RETURNING HOME SHE IS SUBJECT TO VERBAL SLANDER, INAPPROPRIATE INNUENDO OF SEXUAL CONTENT WHICH IS BOTH WORRYING AND INTIMIDATING.

THIS BEHAVIOUR IS COMPLETELY UNPROVOKED AND MY WIFE CANNOT UNDERSTAND WHY SHE IS THE TARGET OF SUCH ASSAULT.

THIS CAN RESULT IN HER NOT WANTING TO LEAVE HOME IF THE CUSTOMERS ARE USING THE BACK OF THE PREMISES AND WHEN RETURNING HOME GETS WORRIED ABOUT ANY POTENTIAL VERBAL ASSAULT SHE WILL BE TARGETED WITH.
